

SHREVEPORT NEWS

Miss Bella Bath is here from Long Beach, Cal. for a visit of several months and is the guest of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bath, also Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Goldstein.

Mrs. Henrietta Winter Leibman comes from Chicago, Ill to visit relatives here.

The friends of Miss Eva C. Peiser will be very sorry that she is a victim to pleurisy, confined to her bed in care of her mother and sister. But Miss Eva is getting along nicely.

Among the parties enjoying the play at the Grand Opera House on New Year's evening was that entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Mose Frank. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Glass of Los Angeles, Cal. After the play their guests accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Frank to their home where they were served supper at a table charmingly decorated in pink and white carnations.

S. L. Herold again heads B'nai Zion. All officers of the B'nai Zion congregation were chosen to serve another year when the annual election of officers was held Sunday. The officers are president, S. L. Herold, vice-president, David B. Samuel; treasurer, Max M. Levy; secretary, J. M. Kaufman. Reports were rendered reviewing the past years work. The voluntary yearly donations which were generous were contributed by every member of the congregation.

Miss Marguerite M. Kelly has returned home after a very happy holiday visit to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lipschitz and family of Fort Worth, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Vidtletz are the proud parents of a son.

Y. M. H. A. Elects 1920 Officers—Selected D. B. Samuels for President.

The third annual meeting of the Young Men's Hebrew Association was held Monday night in the club rooms of the Association (over the Grand Opera House). Dr. J. S. Bernhard, secretary, in his annual report, disclosed that the year just passed has been a most successful one, from every standpoint, for the organization. A beautiful loving cup was presented to the retiring president, George Levy, who was the organizer of the Y. M. H. A. in Shreveport and whose work in its behalf has been untiring. A. L. Snider, the retiring secretary, was presented with a handsome gold watch and fob, as a token of appreciation for his efficient services during the year. Officers and directors were elected for the year 1920 as follows:

President, D. B. Samuels; Vice-President, N. Muror; Secretary, A. L. Snyder; Treasurer, Ben A. Phelps; Financial Secretary, Dr. J. S. Bernhard; Recording Secretary, Sam Mehlman and the following Board of Directors: Theo. Mandel, Joseph Graeber, George Levy, M. S. Weisman, M. Benson, J. S. Wolf, M. Barron, M. Cahn, S. B. Simon.

The friends of Mrs. A. B. Kelly will learn with regret that she is obliged to remain inactive until she has recovered from a case of tonsillitis. She has been a patient of the North Louisiana Sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Armond Roos have as their guest Mrs. Roos' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kahn of Mississippi, and Mrs. Roos' grandmother, Mrs. Feist.

Miss Dora Braunig has returned after a pleasant visit to her sister in Marshall, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brooks of Niagara Falls, N. Y. announce the engagement of their daughter, Natalie, to Mr. Irvin J. Wolff of this city.

Board of Directors Prize Babies Eugenic Contests of State Fair and Prize Babies Alumni and Parents Auxiliary received Friday January 9th for Dr. Jake M. and Mrs. Bodenheimer in private dining room, Hotel Youree was a brilliant success in every way and the ladies felt it but a small tribute to Dr. Bodenheimer for his invaluable services as "chief physician" as a welcome to his bride. The exceptionally beautiful decorations were the work in loving service of Mrs. Rafe Kahn.

Mrs. Sarah Asher is both beloved and honored in her home community and when her birthday arrives it is the pride of her loving friends to do her honor. Her 83rd birthday arrived on Thursday and although she was confined to her bed on the day she had a stream of visitors, letters and telegrams from out of town and many gifts from friends here. One gift most appropriate to the occasion was a birthday cake, the work of her friend, Mrs. Will Foster, embossed in white and the spring flower, "the yellow daffodil." With the cake came a birthday message: "Love and best wishes for our dear friend, Mrs. S. Asher." Father Time says the candles are for the years you have seen, but they speak of the love and joy shed on the pathway of those about you through these years. The white on the cake signifies the beauty and purity of your character and the golden opportunities you have grasped and used for the happiness of others. May God spare you for many more years of sweet association is the wish of your friends, Mesdames Martin Kirsch, Herman Loeb, Sam Weiner, Leopold Wolff, Sidney L. Herold, Bettie Meyer, Herman Herold and Miss Fritzie Wolff. Mrs. J. Weil of Alexandria, was deprived of the pleasure of being with her mother on this occasion as she was recalled to Alexandria by the death of her brother-in-law.

Mrs. Gus Solomon is on a visit in New York City.

Dr. M. S. Picard was called to New Orleans by the death of his brother-in-law.

War-Benson.

The marriage of Miss Yetta Benson to Mr. Sam War was beautifully celebrated Sunday evening in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Benson, Rabbi Goodman officiating in the presence of relatives and a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. War left the same evening for a wedding journey.

Mrs. Philip Lowenberg and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Benson, after visiting in New York, are now visiting in Philadelphia.

Miss Mildred Lichenstein, after visiting in Little Rock, Ark., is now the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Zere, at Dallas, Tex., where she is receiving much social attention.

Mrs. J. Katzenstein entertained Jan.

13th inst., with cards and a supper for Mr. Katzenstein. The little company included 24 of Mr. Katzenstein's close friends.

Handsome cards engraved and embossed in silver have been sent out, which read: "Mrs. J. Katzenstein, Thursday, January fifteenth, one to six o'clock; Arbor room. Luncheon. Bridge. R. S. V. P." Mrs. Katzenstein's guests in her home for the celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary, are her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lasker of Little Rock, and niece, Mrs. Will Levinson, also Mrs. Jake Bodenheimer of New Orleans, La.

Dr. A. Schmitt, optometrist, who is now proprietor of the Southern Optical Company at Vicksburg, the largest establishment of its kind in Mississippi. Quarters of the new concern will be located at 512 1-2 Texas street, Sport, La.

Will R. Hirsch, secretary of the State Fair, will leave Shreveport at noon Friday for New Orleans, La., where he goes in the interest of the Fair.

Mrs. Gus Klein has returned from Nashville, Tenn., where she visited her sister, Mrs. Sam Cohen, and her daughter, Mrs. Sidney M. Weiner.

The dedication service for the setting of stone for Mrs. S. A. Isaacson will take place (this) Sunday afternoon at Hebrew Rest Cemetery.

Mrs. Reta Hahn was buried last Wednesday. Services were conducted by Mr. A. Levy, who is temporarily in charge of the B'nai Zion Temple. Mrs. Kahn is survived by her sister, Mrs. Edna Haas McMurphy, wife of Henry H. McMurphy, and her brother, Jake Haas, both of Shreveport. Mrs. Kahn's husband, Arthur Kahn, who died several years ago, was a well-known traveling salesman.

Miss Eva E. Peiser is on a visit in Fort Worth, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lipschitz, 1218 Hemphill street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Katzenstein left for a visit in New York and Boston. They will make a stop in Charlotte, Va., to see their son Frank, a student in the University of Virginia. Frank Katzenstein is back at work after having spent the holidays in New York City.

Notice has been served on the city that it must vacate the property oc-

J. Wesley Head, M. D.

Oscar E. Veatch, A. B., M. D.

DRS. HEAD & VEATCH

Practice Limited to

EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT

Second Floor Burton Bldg.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

Every stripe in these shirts stands for Service

Woven Madras Shirts

These fabrics produce more real service than any other fabric on the market—Shirts of great value and worthy of the price.

$3.50, $4.00, $4.50

Standard Merchandise

The best that money and genius will produce—Wilson Bros. Shirts, Delpack Collars, Cooper Underwear, Cheney Ties, Stetson Hats, Kremontz Jewelry.

TAGGART-LINTZ, Inc.

HABERDASHERS

508 MAIN